You'll get a bit better value than ever in these new Griffon Spring suits

You'll find that this is a store that is never content with its own efforts—whatever we may accomplish one season must be excelled by another—you'll find that very evident in these new GRIFFON spring suits—designed and tailored by the famous GRIFFON organization of Baltimore.

They represent more "dollar for dollar" value than you've ever got for your hard earned money—better style, better patterns, better woollens, better making—progress is the keynote. Special values at $15.00 to $20.00.

Beaver Brand Hats $2.50 and $3.00

STRUB BROTHERS

Brunswick, Missouri

The spring crop of babies is below the average this spring. Hard times and high prices eh?

The Lon Cook sale Saturday under the management of C. C. Parks and auctioneer Ford was a success. There was a great lot of household goods sold and prices were satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Goll of River View are the parents of a fine boy. Friday the 8 pound youngster made his appearance and has progressed to the most important personage on the fine farm. All doing well, and grandma Goll has greatly improved since his arrival.

Miss Ruth Hancock started to Plainview, Tex., Saturday and when she reached Kansas City she was not feeling the best, so she consulted a physician who informed her that she had diphtheria. She immediately returned to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gehardt where she had been exposed to the disease. A physician of this city was called and treated the young lady with antitoxin and she is all right again.

Our school is finishing better than it started, but then there is a reason for all things, and the one in this case may be that some incorrigibles have been relegated, whatever you may wish to understand by that.

It has been contended that a man has a right to correct his wife with a blacksnake but the advanced principle of regulating her with a shot gun flourish is not taken to very kindly by old timers. Still, sporadic and chronic cases are differentiated.

Good Positions For Good People

The Brown shoe factory, at Brookfield, is in need of bright, industrious young ladies and gentlemen who desire steady employment. The personality of the Brookfield factory is of the highest standard and applicants are required to bring letters of recommendation. Established eight years and has 465 employees.

K. H. S. First Class

In some way it was whispered that our school had been dropped to a second place for some reason, and many were considerably disturbed by the rumor.

There was unavoidable delay in sending in the bills for some books purchased by the superintendent and a misunderstanding arose out of that fact, but to inform all who feel an interest in the matter, we publish below the letter from the state department to the superintendent which followed at once the sending of the bill or bills.

Jefferson City,
Apr. 29, 1916.

Supt. W. W. Gibbany,
Keytesville, Mo.

Dear Sir:—

I have received your letters and bills for books. I am classifying Keytesville as a first class high school.

Yours truly,
Howard A. Gass.

Robert Hawkins, colored, a favorite handy man here until he went to Brookfield, is here this week visiting relatives.
